

26-Jan-2021_songs and sonnets and rhymes

More from the "Seeds of David": Casper (Elerian)

I make songs and sonnets and rhymes of your intimate times with Jesus. I take the words of your heart and lips, and His replies to you, and weave them together to make lovely, romantic, stimulating words to be read by romantics, and those learning to lean into Jesus harder, learning to be enfolded passionately in an embrace. These words help to stimulate new life. For love and intimacy with the Creator brings new life. And that is what He loves.

Words create. Words of love to and from the Saviour of the World create new life in the love department. And new life for Jesus spells joy.

So ring out your words and fantasies and honour to the King, and hear Him call sweetly in reply. I will create lovely poetry and songs to stir this same love in the hearts of those who must learn how to love more intensely and with more wild and free abandon. It's not just going into the wind, but being turned into tools for others to love Jesus more. In short, your love with Jesus is being multiplied back to Him again, through the hearts of others who learn from them.