

5-FEB-2021_hidden things of God

(Jesus speaking: ) My little one, who wants to know the deep truths, the deepest mysteries of the times. Many want to know, but it is not expedient to know, but I show it to those for whom it is expedient, or parts of it, for all will not know or see all, for that is not expedient.

What I will reveal, I will, and what I will withhold, I will do so out of love, pure love.

The Bible is as a light to show the way; it doesn't declare plainly all things, for that is for Me to know. So if I have "hid things from the wise" then be not destabilised. I must hide at times, so that there can be a revealing, and all can work out perfectly well.

What you are to know are whatever hidden things I choose to show you, the "hidden things of God"—which most is. There is so little that you actually know. But that makes the future all the more exciting.

But the more you ask Me to show you, and you are ready for, the more you will know. For it's the hungry that need to hear it, for they have left themselves hungry so that only the good things could fill them. If you are hungry, it's because you are choosing to be, and you need and want Me alone to fill you.

I'm coming sooner than is globally anticipated, I'll assure you of that.
